

WSB University
Field of study: International relations
Course: International Transactions and Global Supply Chains
Educational profile: practical
Education level: I - cycle studies
CLASS LANGUAGE	English
FORM	Lecture
COURSE OBJECTIVES	Acquainting students with the conditions of international economic transactions, characteristics and analysis of the cycle of import and export transactions, presentation of contractual clauses. Global supply chain management.
COURSE CONTENT (Division into contact hours and e-learning))	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Fundamentals of international trade 2. International trade transactions 3. International trade documentation 4. International Commercial Terms 5. Global supply chains 6. Supply chain management 7. Global supply chain strategies
LITERATURE (compulsory reading)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fellmeth A.X. Introduction to International Business Transactions. Edward Elgar Publishing Ltd. 2020. • Folsom, R. H., Gordon, M. W., Spanogle, J. A., Fitzgerald, P. L., & Van Alstine, M. P. International business transactions: a problem-oriented coursebook. ThomsonReuters 2012. • Blonigen B.A., Wilson W.W. (ed.). Handbook of International Trade and Transportation. Edward Elgar Publishing, 2018 • Incoterms 2010, ICC, 2010 • John Mangan, Chandra Lalwani, Tim Butcher: Global Logistics and Supply Chain Management, John Wiley & Sons, 2008
OPTIONAL LITERATURE (including at least two items in English, either books or articles)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • C. Donald J. Waters: Global logistics: new directions in supply chain management, Kogan Page Publishers, 2007